Increasing Public Access to Court Rules – Moving from Good to Great

PHOENIX – Submitting changes or comments to Arizona’s court rules, which apply in all state courts, has just gotten easier. The Arizona Supreme Court now accepts electronic filing of rule petitions and rule comments at the “Rules E-Forum.” The Rules E-Forum is a website created by the Arizona Supreme Court that allows the public to monitor all pending rules petitions and comments.

“Allowing electronic filing of rule petitions and rule comments saves time and money for members of the legal and non-legal communities who wish to be a part of the rule change process,” said Chief Justice Ruth V. McGregor. “We’re excited about our ability to offer easier access for all interested parties, in another step to move our courts from good to great.”

To submit, comment on, or view a rule change petition, please visit <http://www.supreme.state.az.us/rules/> and register.

The public may still submit rule change petitions and comments in the traditional, paper method with the Clerk of the Supreme Court located at 1501 West Washington, Fourth Floor, Phoenix, Arizona 85007. For instructions, please visit: www.supreme.state.az.us/clerk. These documents will appear on the electronic forum.
